ORDER OF BUSINESS1. PRAYER

The Mayor read the following:

Hume City's religious diversity strengthens and enriches community life and supports the well-being of the citizens of Hume City. Hume City Council acknowledges the importance of spiritual life and the leadership offered by the Hume City Inter Faith Leaders Network. In recognition of the religious diversity of residents in Hume City, Council has invited the Inter Faith Leaders Network to take responsibility for the opening prayer at Council meetings. This evening's prayer will be led by Harshinder Singh of the Sri Guru Singh Sabha Craigieburn.

Harshinder Singh read the following:

First, Allah created the Light: then, by His Creative Power, He made all mortal beings. From the One Light, the entire universe welled up. So who is good, and who is bad? (1) 0 people, 0 Siblings of Destiny, do not wander deluded by doubt.

The Creation is in the Creator, and the Creator is in the Creation, totally pervading and permeating all places. (1) (Pause)

The clay is the same, but the Fashioner has fashioned it in various ways.

There is nothing wrong with the pot of clay- there is nothing wrong with the Potter. (2) The One True Lord abides in all; by His making, everything is made.

Whoever realises the Hukam of His Command, knows the One Lord. He alone is said to be the Lord's slave. (3)

The Lord Allah is unseen; He cannot be seen. The Guru has blessed me with this sweet molasses.

Says Kabeer, my anxiety and fear have been taken away; I see the Immaculate Lord

CNM15 CONDOLENCE MOTION – REV'D FR EMANUEL KHOSHABA

Moved Cr Joseph Haweil, Seconded Cr Jodi Jackson

That Council acknowledge the recent passing of The Rev'd Fr Emanuel Khoshaba, and write to His Grace Mar Amel Nona, Archbishop of The St Thomas Chaldean and Assyrian Catholic Diocese and The Rev'd Fr Kamal Bidawid of Our Lady Guardian of the Plants Chaldean Catholic Parish (Campbellfield), expressing Council's condolences.

CARRIED

The late Fr Emanuel Khoshaba was a well-known figure in Australia's Middle Eastern Christian community having selflessly served the Chaldean Catholic Church and in particular Hume's Chaldean Catholic community for decades.

Fr Emanuel was born in the northern Iraqi town of Zakho in 1931. He was ordained a priest in June 1955. He served in Iraq for many years in numerous pastoral and teaching roles, including in Baghdad and at the Orphanage of Chaldean Nuns in Suleikh, Baghdad where he spent more than 4 years of his life in service.

Fr Emanuel later continued his higher studies and learnt the French language at a Catholic Institute in Toulouse City, in the south of France.

On 13 October 1982, the Chaldean Patriarch Paul II Sheikho, appointed Fr Emanuel to serve the Chaldean Catholic Community in Melbourne. In this role, he worked tirelessly in pastoral and community service particularly following the first Gulf War in 1991 which saw thousands of Iraqis arrive in Australia fleeing that terrible conflict. He played a key role in their settlement in Melbourne's northern suburbs assisting in everything from housing, to employment and of course, spiritual ministry.

For more than 35 years, Fr Emanuel served thousands of Hume's residents and was a beloved and esteemed figure renowned for his humility, integrity and zeal for service.

I take this opportunity to once again offer my sincere condolences to Archbishop Amel Nona, the clergy and faithful of Our Lady Guardian of the Plants Parish in Campbellfield where Fr Emanuel served and of course, to the entire Chaldean Catholic Community of Hume and Australia.
